

VOLUME III

THE POMEGRANATE PRESS

HOME GROWN CELLARS 13702 ROAD 20 – MADERA, CALIFORNIA – (559) 664-8599

LOVE IS IN THE AIR!

In April, Home Grown Cellars was pleased to host the wedding of Ryan and Yoshiko Booker. It was a beautiful Spring day, perfect for this union. Guests enjoyed the serene nature setting as Ryan and Yoshiko were joined as husband and wife. Congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Booker!!

SUMMER CRAFT CLASSES AT THE CELLAR

We are taking the summer off! Well... not entirely. We will be going merchandise market to fill the shop with beautiful fall gifts for you to enjoy. Check back with us, in our next newsletter for offerings of Fall Craft Classes.

GOOD STUFF FOR GOOD HEALTH

We still have fresh Pomegranate Juice, sweet Pomegranate Honey, and delicious Raw Almonds are available for purchase. In addition, we are now selling Pomegranate Seed Oil. Pomegranate Seed Oil has numerous health benefits, including healing, protecting, and moisturizing dry, cracked, mature and irritated skin.

CRAFTS AND ANTIQUES FAIR

Important Date Change!! Please make note that our June 21st Antique and Craft Sale has been postponed until September. We were prompted to reschedule this day of summer fun due to the number of vendors who would be unable to attend. If YOU have a craft or an art and that you

FEATURES BY DR. DIRT

Soil Types

Seeds planted in good soil of the earth, with a little fertilizer and water, yields a very good product.

There is another soil... that of the human heart; like the earth's soil, if it is good, with a little help along the way, it will yield a very good product.

would like to sell and are interested in being a vendor at our Crafts and Antiques Fair, call Jackie at (559) 664-8599. There will be refreshments and lots of fun! Crafters and antique collectors wanted. Call to reserve your space or for more details.

SPECIAL STAR PARTY

Our special star party has been moved forward to the 1st week of August so that everyone will have time to enjoy their families this summer. The activities have not changed... we will still study the galaxies & star gaze, and you'll be able to see stars up close and personal through a telescope. Come learn about various constellations and mysteries in the Heavens. Date and time are To Be Determined, so stay tuned!

NEW POMEGRANATE E-PRESS

Because of the rise in postage, we will soon be distributing the Pomegranate Press via e-letters. So if you would like to continue to receive the newsletter, email Jackie@HomeGrownCellars.com, with "E-Press" in the subject line. Or come visit us at our website: www.HomeGrownCellars.com and contact us through our guest book. Our NEXT Pomegranate Press newsletter will be our LAST newsletter to be sent through the US Postal Service. So please remember to send us your email address.

REFRESHING SUMMER DRINK

If you've been to an event at the Cellar, you may have had the chance to enjoy our refreshing Pomegranate Iced Tea. Now you can make it at your own gatherings!

Refreshing Pomegranate Iced Tea

Ingredients:

- 8 bags of Pomegranate Tea
- 8 cups boiling water
- 1 pint Home Grown Cellars fresh pomegranate juice

Instructions:

Seep tea in water according to package directions. Pour over pitcher of ice. Stir in fresh pomegranate juice. Serve chilled. Enjoy!

"Come visit us at Home Grown Cellars!" – Alex & Jackie Lehman